Wheeler keeps fighting

Wheeler showed determination to win this year. Even if they were too far behind to catch up they kept trying. All of the athletes put forth their best efforts to prove that Wheeler deserves to be a school. When they lost they showed good sportsmanship by shaking hands and being friendly with the opponents. The pictures show Wheeler athletes doing the things mentioned above.

Seniors escape to St. Louis . . .

The 1974 Senior Class went to St. Louis, Missouri, and Brown County, Indiana for their senior trip. Although it was snowy and cold, all seniors had fun and appreciated the chance to go. We would like to thank Mr. Paul St. Clair, our sponsor, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Ilic, Mrs. Dee Hattabaugh, and the bus driver, Mr. Ingram for chaperoning.

The pictures show some of the seniors in St. Louis. A. Sitting: Chris Windsor, Judy Rippe, Therese Simatovich, and Mark Bruszewski; Standing: Greg Powell, Jack Dick, Joan Hattabaugh, and Shelley Burge were at the Botanical Gardens.

In Memory of . . .

The Senior Class dedicates this page in memory of Jane Bissing and Mike Peple.

We, also, would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Bissing for their contribution to us in memory of Jane.

April 17, the first group of science students traveled to the Museum of Science and Industry. The science teachers chaperoned, and Mr. Kennedy drove the bus.

Picture A. Jim Koeppen, Larry Davis, and John Simatovich examined an exhibit. B. Some of the happy students riding to the museum. C. A group of students posed in front of an old stagecoach.

First Federal Savings

4 Guideposts for Happier Living From First Federal

1

BE CONSIDERATE
Develop a sincere interest in people, their lives and their problems. Be understanding, and never build personal success at the expense of others.

2

HELP THOSE IN NEED
You will find few experiences so rewarding in life as the times you give a helping hand to folks in need.

3

CONTINUE TO LEARN
Stay mentally active, intellectually curious, receptive to new ideas. Education is a wondrous process continuing throughout life.

4

CULTIVATE THRIFT
Save regularly from the start. Thrift gives you an important extra margin for progress . . . for security . . . for success.
